Ahmed Mohamed

Email: ahmed.dev.mo@gmail.com

- I am a mature, positive, and hardworking individual, who always strives to achieve the highest standard possible, at any given task.
- I am a recent graduate of Software engineering at University of Westminster having completed and understanding modules in IOS/Android app development, Java programming, Cyber Security and Algorithms Development.
- I strive to challenge myself in testing, debugging codes and creating new projects to further my skills.

Skills:

- Interpersonal Communication skills.
- Java, HTML, CSS, SQL, OSINT, Python, Android Studio, Swift, B-Lang and FSP
- Solid knowledge of cybersecurity principles
- Polite, hardworking and trustworthy
- Confident and well spoken

Education:

University of Westminster (2018-2022)

Bachelor of Engineering with Software Engineering

- Achieved a Second-Class Honours Degree
- Heavy focus on full stack engineering with modules on both front and back-end processes.
- Built a Student Guide App (Android) for a final year project.

NewVic Sixth Form College (2016-2018)

Information Technology

- Achieved a Triple Distinction
- Heavy focus on full stack engineering with modules on both front and back-end processes.
- Built a Student Guide App (Android) for a final year project

Employment history:

WHSmith June 2019-June 2021

Worked with a small team of 12 running operations and closely working with the manager to provide great customer service to 300 people a day.

- Helped hit targets daily through upselling and influencing Customers through recommendations.
- Resolving minimum 10 customer problems daily by actively listening, showing empathy, and communicating effectively.
- Improved stock efficiency from 96% to 99% by being highly organised and implementing an efficient rota system.
- Training and mentoring new employees by using expertise and fostering an open and supportive culture
- Achieving employee of the month for going 'above and beyond when helping customers and the team

Languages:

I can speak 2 languages very fluently which are English and Somali.